20,000 ELKS MEET

Grand Lodge Session Is Opend At Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—(By Associated Press)—This city was host today to more than twenty thousand members, their relatives and friends here to attend the fifty-seventh Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks which opened its sessions today.

About twenty thousand other persons are expected to arrive for the sessions before noon tomorrow.

The Chicago delegation is one of the numerous ones which will submit arguments for the selection of their respective cities as the site of a proposed national headquarters to cost two and a half million dollars. The site is expected to be chosen Wednesday. The 1922 budget will be introduced today.

WEED NUISANCE IS THORN IN SIDE OF LOCAL OFFICIALS

The city's official family is being pestered with personal and telephone calls, wherein bitter complaint is lodged concerning weed covered vacant lots in various parts of the city. In many places weeds almost hide the street walks and are growing so rank as to afford hiding places for holdups.

Civic pride of the owners has been appealed to by officials on several occasions but very unsatisfactory results have been obtained. All of them are sighing for a state law that will permit municipalities to enter upon premises where weed cutting has been neglected, remove the nuisance and make the charge then against the property affected.

Under the law as it exists, weed cutting is made a health measure and applies only to three kinds of noxious weeds, not prevalent in this section. Sweet clover and other rank growth is running riot in alleys, in vacant lots and along sidewalks and neglected street lawns. In some cities steps have been taken to have the weeds removed at public expense, but later it is found that under the law the cost cannot be collected from the property owner.

BASEBALL SIGNED BY PRESIDENT IS MASCOT'S PRIZE

Herbert Young and the baseball bearing President Harding's signature.

Herbert Young holds a position sought by most every red-blooded lad—that of mascot for a big league baseball team. He is with the Washington club. But as though this were not fame enough, Herbert now boasts of a big league baseball autographed by President Harding. The president wrote his name on it when the boy called at the White House. The ball also bears the signature of the members of the Washington team.

POLICE FIRE ON FLEEING MAN

Shots Exchanged As H. Kuntz Evades Arrest.

EXCITING MAN HUNT STAGED

Citizens Join In Chase On E. Market-st.

While making an unsuccessful attempt to capture a man, Sunday nights police staged a running gun battle on E. Market-st. The man is said to be H. Kuntz and was boarding at the home of L. C. Carr, 503 E Market-st.

According to police, when Carr endeavored to collect room rent from the man Sunday afternoon, he was refused admittance. Later, police say, Kuntz was seen cleaning a revolver Early in the evening, Carr made another attempt to collect the rent and Kuntz is said to have jumped thru the window, firing as he went.

Detectives Kipker and Watkins, Sergeant McCoy and Patrolmen Edwards and Harrison were rushed to the scene.

SHOTS EXCHANGED

Edwards located Kuntz about four houses away from the Carr home. Before the officer could get to him, Kuntz ran. He is said to have opened fire upon the officers Edwards shot three times. Police say Edwards apparently hit the man. No blood stains were located, however.

During the fight Kuntz carried a small suitcase.

Police conjectures concerning the cause of the strenuous resistance put up by Kuntz are varied. The exciting incident aroused the neighborhood in the vicinity of the Carr home and numerous citizens joined in the chase, after arming themselves.

A diligent search was made by the police, but Kuntz made good his escape.

14 ARE KILLED IN IRISH RIOT

105 Injured In Final Clash Before Truce.

ARMISTICE NOW EFFECTIVE

Fighting Ceases Only As Clocks Strike 12.

BELFAST — (By United Press)— Violence and disorder continued in the North of Ireland up to the very hour the truce went into effect at noon today.

The morning mail train, enroute from Belfast to Londonderry, was derailed near Carrickmore, in Tyrone. The crew was held up and six cars burned.

The rioting in Belfast, which broke out Saturday night and continued until suppressed by the military last night, was renewed this morning. There were sporadic outbursts in various parts of the city which continued up until nearly noon. In one melee a bread wagon was overturned and the driver beaten.

In addition to the 14 persons killed and 105 injured, it was stated that 200 were rendered homeless by fire.

TRUCE IN EFFECT

DUBLIN — (By United Press) — As the clocks of Dublin struck the hour of noon today, the sound of their bells was drowned in the roar of ship sirens that welcomed the truce between the British forces and the Sinn Feiners.

Citizens gathered excitedly on the corners. Shortly after 12 o'clock, when the armistice became effective, a group of unarmed Black and Tans strolled from their barracks. In a few moments they were fraternizing with the people, talking eagerly about the prospects of permanent peace.

The soldiers, long conspicuous figures in the streets, disappearing to day and in the places of the sentries with fixed bayonets, peaceful-looking policemen paced their beats.

SEEK RECALL OF COMMISSION

Dayton Citizens Want City Government Ousted.

DAYTON — (By United Press) — A petition asking the recall of the city commission at referendum, will be passed upon by the Montgomery-co board of elections. The petition bears the signatures of 8,336 property owners, who want the present form of government ousted and the federal form substituted

The petition is one of the outgrowths of dissatisfaction resulting from granting the Dayton Gas Company a sliding scale, which jumped the price of natural gas from 34 to 50 cents per thousand, minimum and $1 per thousand maximum.

Other matters also enter into the fight, in which a vastly larger number of people is taking part than the petition indicates.

Final decision is expected later today

NURSE AROUSED BY KABER'S CRIES

Male Attendant Tells Court of Publisher's Murder.

FASTENS CRIME ON WIFE

Says Victim Accused Woman of Hiring Assassins.

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — For a fourth time, the state today in the trial of Eva Catherine Kaber for the murder of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber, produced a witness who testified that Mr. Kaber declared Mrs. Kaber had him stabbed.

The witness wos W F. Utterback, Mr. Kaber's male nurse. He said he was aroused on the night of the murder by Mr. Kaber's cries:

"Utterback, Utterback, come quick—murder."

FOUND ON FLOOR

On entering Mr. Kaber's room, he said he found the Lakewood publisher lying on the floor, his night clothing covered with blood.

"Who did this?" Utterback said he asked.

"A man with a cap. Mrs. Kaber had this done." Mr. Kaber was alleged to have replied.

Utterback said he nursed Mr. Kaber for about six weeks prior to the murder and that during that time Mr. Kaber's condition steadily improved. He said he served Mr Kaber's meals which had been prepared by Mrs. Kaber or a maid. Mr. Kaber became sick after eating only once while he was nursing him, he said.

ASSIGNED TO ATTIC

About five days prior to the murder, Utterback said Mrs. Kaber asked him to sleep at the Kaber home assigning him to an attic room.

Utterback said Mrs. Kaber returned home from Cedar Point, Ohio, the next day after the murder. She never asked him anything about the murder, he stated.

Prior to Mr. Utterback being placed on the stand Attorney William J. Corrigan cross examined Mrs. Erminia Colavito, who had testified Saturday. The cross-examination brought out nothing new.

The Mrs. Mary Brickel, Mrs. Kaber's mother, and Miss Marian McArdle. Mrs. Kaber's daugater, were in the home on the night of the stabbing, Mr. Utterback said mother of them went in to see Mr. Kaber. Mrs. Brickel cried, he said when he told her that Mr. Kaber had been stabbed.

CONFESSIONS BARRED

With consent of counsel for the state, Judge Bernon ruled that alleged confessions by Mrs. Erminia Colavito and Salvator Cala, related to the court Saturday by Detective Phil Mooney, should not go to the jury as evidence. Detective Mooney, recalled to the stand was permitted to testify as to alleged statements by Mrs. Kaber after she had been returned to Cleveland from New York. No attempt was made by the state to introduce the statement of Mrs. Kaber, alleged to have been made at police headquarters in New York.

Detective Mooney said that Mrs Kaber pointed out Mrs. Colavito to him saying "that is the woman," also that Mrs. Kaber acknowledged that she had told Urbano Di Corpo that she wanted her husband killed

James P Kirby, a local newspaper reporter, testified that Mrs. Kaber told him in the New York police court that "the night this happened I was robbed of $500 worth of silverware. If the police could find the men with the silverware, they would find the murderers of Mr. Kaber.

SENATOR WATSON ANGERS CATHOLICS

Senator Thomas E. Watson

WASHINGTON — (Special) — A storm of indignation is sweeping Catholic circles in the United States as a result of charges against members of the episcopacy and priesthood contained in the Columbia Sentinel, the weekly newspaper issued by United States Senator Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia.

Already President Harding and every member of the senate have been provided with copies of the allegations made by the Georgia senator.

The situation has served to reveal that Mr. Watson, since his elevation to the senate, has transferred the editorial offices of the Sentinel to the senate office building in Washington. Catholic activity in the premises seems likely to find its way to the floor of the senate and to compel the attention of the country at large.

WARSHIPS BACK AT TAMPICO

U. S. Withdrawal Made to Avoid Law Technicalities.

GUARD AMERICAN INTERESTS

Trouble Expected To Break Out at Mexican Port.

MEXICO CITY.—(By Associated Press)—United States warships, which on Friday were reported to have been withdrawn from Tampico, returned to that port yesterday afternoon Dispatches reaching Mexico City last night said the Sacramento and Cleveland again were anchored at the mouth of the Panuco river, and altho no explanation was given for their return, it was presumed the vessels withdrew to the high seas for twenty-four hours in order to avoid the technicalities of international law, and then returned to Tampico.

When they first arrived off the Panuco river last week it was said their mission was to protect North American interests. It is considered not improbable the vessels will continue this maneuver until the situation clears.

Reports from Tampico state the situation remains quiet, and that no disturbances have taken place.

The confederation of workers of the state of Vera Cruz, representing fifteen unions, met at Orizaba yesterday and drafted an appeal to the American Federation of Labor, asking its aid in preventing serious difficulties between the United States and Mexico.

LONDON—(By Associated Press) —President Harding's message looking to the calling of an international conference on the limitation of armaments has been received with the utmost pleasure by Great Britain, Mr. Lloyd-George, the prime minister, declared in the house of commons today.

Speaking on the subject of the American communication, the prime minister said:

"I need not say that we welcome with the utmost pleasure President Harding's wise and courteous initiative."

The house cheered this statement and the premier added:

"In saying that, I speak for the empire as a whole."

The premier said China would be treated as an independent in the conference on Pacific affairs

"The world has been looking to the United States for such a lead," Mr Lloyd George declared in referring to President Harding's message. "I am confident that the house will esteem it as an act of far-seeing statesmanship and will wholeheartedly wish it success. No effort will be lacking to make it so on the part of the British empire, which shares to the full the liberal and progressive spirit inspiring it."

Colonel George Harvey, the American ambassador, was in the gallery of the house to hear the prime minister's statement.

HARDING SENDS NOTE

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The course of the United States was definitely set today toward two goals of international importance — limitation of armament and solution of problems involving the Pacific and the Far East.

President Harding, it was revealed in a state department announcement published today has approached with informal but definite inquiries the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, to ascertain whether it would be agreeable to those nations to participate in a conference to be held in Washington at an agreed upon date for the discussion of armament limitation.

EAST PROBLEMS

He furthermore has suggested to the nations interested in the problems of the Pacific and Far East, that there is undertaken in connection with the armament conference, the consideration of "all matters bearing upon their solution with a view to reaching a common understanding with respect to principles and policies in the Far East."

The state department announcement said that if the proposal for a limitation of armament conference were found acceptable, formal invitations for the conference would be issued. Whether any responses to the inquiry directed to the allied and associated powers have been received by the president, was not indicated in the department's announcement For that reason great popular interest was attached to the statement by Lloyd-George, the British premier, promised for today, and which London advices have indicated would touch upon the matters initiated by Mr Harding

MOSQUITOES--HOW TO COMBAT 'EM

THIS is the time when mosquitoes get in their deadly work. They are the bane of vacationists and especially annoying to those who seek the cool breezes on their front porches and yards at night.

Dr. William Brady, health expert for The Lima News has written some interesting and helpful advice on combatting these pests. He says:

Mosquito bites annoy some persons very little and others very much, the good being the greater sufferers of course.

For relief, rub the place gently with moistened soap. In the case of children, bathe the skin with a tablespoonful of household ammonia or of aromatic spirits of ammonia in a cupful of water, or bathe with a small handful of saleratus (soda) in a basin of water. Some persons find that the irritation of a mosquito bite is relieved by touching the spot with tincture of iodine. Glycerin gives relief in some cases. And the immediate application of a drop of peroxide of hydrogen to the puncture has been praised by many. This peroxide treatment has also been recommended to me by a soda fountain clerk for the relief of bee stings—the syrups attracted bees and many many stings were treated in the summer season.

HOW TO KILL THEM

The way to rid a place of mosquitoes is to conduct a thoro survey of the neighborhood, searching out every place where water is likely to stand for as long as nine or ten days, and emptying such receptacles, screening them if they cannot be emptied, or oiling the surface if the water cannot be drained away. Disused wells, cisterns, fountains, rain barrels, obstructed eaves, old cans hidden under weeds, cow tracks in fields, unscreened drains, unused water closets, unscreened sewer catch basins, cesspools, etc., must be looked upon as likely places for mosquito breeding Weeds or grass along the edges of small streams or ponds must be cleared away, so that fish may get at the larvae and devour them.

Dopes of various kinds are used to repel mosquitoes in infested places. Here is a good one:

Oil of citronella .....1 ounce
Spirits of camphor ...1 ounce
Oil of cedar .....½ ounce

A few drops of this on a towel hung over the head of the bed will keep mosquitoes away for hours. A little may be applied to the face and hands where mosquitoes are very annoying

Another excellent dope recommended to me by an outdoor man of long experience is this:

Olive oil
Oil of tar
Oil of cedar
Oil of citronella, equal parts of each.

GOOEY, BUT EFFECTIVE

This makes a gooey dope, but it certainly does repel the pests. A cloth with a few drops of it may be hung in the door of a tent and the occupant will be visited by no mosquitoes for hours.

Oil of citronella alone is good, but does not last.

Still a third mosquito dope, suggested in U. S Department of Agriculture's Farmers' Bulletin 444 is this:

Castor oil
Alcohol
Oil of lavender, of each an ounce.

This mixture avoids the odor of citronella, which is not agreeable to some persons. If castor oil will do the mosquitoes any good, or if alcohol will help 'em to enjoy life, I, for one, say give them all they want.

Hunters, anglers or hikers exposed for long periods to mosquitoes may prefer a mixture which retards the evaporation of the citronella:

Oil of citronella .....1 ounce
Liquid petrolatum ...4 ounces

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

Whenever a gas bill is abnormally large there is always a complete explanation for it, when all the facts and circumstances connected with the case are known.

For instance, when you find a sudden or unusual increase in your bill, ask yourself:

Has the weather been to blame?

Has there been sickness in the house?

Have I had company during the period?

Have the servants or others used more gas than I am aware of?

Have any additional gas appliances been installed during the period?

Are there any other circumstance sor occurrences that will account for the increase in my bill?

If you recall no reason come to us first (do not go to your neighbors) and we will do our utmost to help you locate the cause. If we find that a mistake has been made we will cheerfully correct the error. We are here to serve you.

NO CHANCE FOR BOYS TO USE CITY WATER PONDS AS PLACES FOR SWIMMING

"It would be out of the question," Service Director Elmer McClain said Monday. "To grant permission to boys to swim in the water works reservoirs. A request of that kind has not been put up to me, but I understand it will be. There is only one answer that I can make and that is —No'

"If the ponds were opened to bathers and later on should there be an epidemic of typhoid fever, this department would have to shoulder the blame. Besides, the city water reservoirs are not the proper place for swimming, anyway."

The service director is having signs prepared, to be erected at intervals along the banks of the reservoirs, warning boys and others against swimming. He is also endeavoring to make arrangements to have the places patroled, as a further safeguard against the wrongful use of the ponds.

CITY TO OPPOSE O. E. RATE TILT AT UTILITIES BOARD MEETING TUESDAY

The state utilities Commission is scheduled to either grant or reject the Ohio Electric company's request for an increase in its rate for commercial electricity, at a meeting of that body in Columbus Tuesday. City Solicitor Garling leaves Lima Monday night for the capitol, where he will attend the meeting.

It is another chapter in the history of the light rate controversy which has been going on for more than a year. If the city is willing to abide by the increase granted the company Tuesday, the final chapter will be written. If, on the other hand, the city believes the increase given the company is unjust, the matter will be taken to the court, Mayor Burkhardt said Monday afternoon.

The increase asked by the commission, if granted, will be based upon the property valuation of the company, the mayor said.

Recently, at a hearing the commission asked for a valuation of the property. This valuation was returned at $1,300,000. According to Mayor Burkhardt, the commission reduced the valuation nearly 30 per cent and the increase granted Tuesday will be upon this latter valuation, the mayor believes.

ITALIAN FATHER WANTS STATE JUVENILE BUREAU TO IMPROVE SECOND SON

COLUMBUS—"Charles, be gooda boy now; you come get Toney, which is older than Charles, and maka him gooda boy too."

That was a request received in a letter from up state by Dr. H. H. Goddard, superintendent of the state bureau of juvenile research. Charles is the son of Italians, who was made practically well by the bureau. The father was so grateful that he wants Toney made just as well as Charles. He wrote in part:

"I am dropping you this line, in order to advise you that last year I turned over to you my boy Charles, and this time I beg you to come after my boy Toney, which is older than Charles.

"The reason I desire to have you take care of my boy Toney he is getting astray from home, so I beg you to kindly come for him just as soon as possible, and trust that you will turn him into a good boy, just as my boy Charles has become nice since he has been to Columbus.

"Kindly do not write, but just come for him, and I shall explain you details fully face to face with you. I beg to close with most sincerely best wishes."

VERDICT FOR LABOR TAKEN UP ON APPEAL

Mrs. Amy Reichelderfer has appealed to common pleas court the case in Justice W. H. Guyton's court, wherein C. C. and Russell Craig obtained a judgment against her for $39.25 and costs, for labor and a team furnished in excavation of a cellar.

Mrs. Reichelderfer paid them for the first week's work under the provisions of a verbal contract and then refused to pay, declaring the price was excessive, it is claimed.

CINCINNATI— Mrs. Anna Lucks, 66, was killed when she was hit by a street car after two automobiles struck her throwing her upon the tracks.

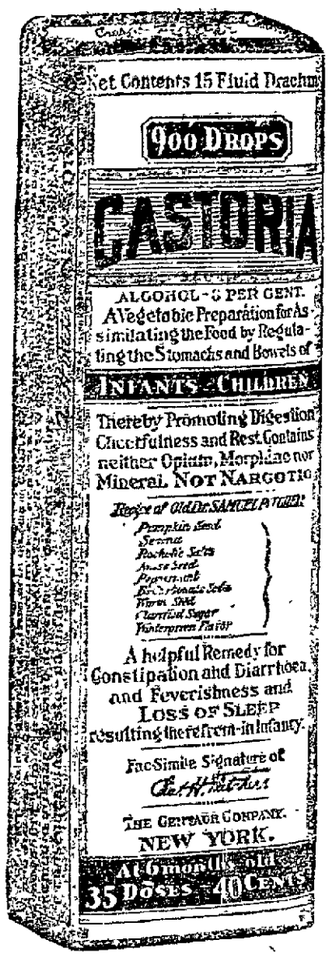

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good — that it can't do any harm — and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

Keep The Egg Basket Full!

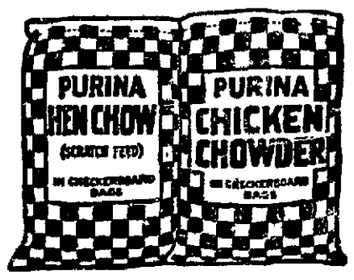

The feed elements that make whites of eggs are entirely different from those that make yolks. When hens aren't fed both the white and yolk making elements, they can't keep the egg basket full. The usual method of feeding mostly grain makes yolks but not enough whites to complete the eggs.

Missouri Experiment Station tests prove that 100 lbs. of wheat, corn, oats, barley and kaffir corn make (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks to 154 whites. Based on data from the same experiments, Purina formulas produce, (above bodily maintenance) as follows:

	Yolks	Whites
Purina Hen Chow	247.49	142.11
Purina Chicken Chowder	182.05	282.55
Combined Ration	429.54	424.66

These Purina chows not only make a practically equal number of whites and yolks but more of both than ordinary chows.

Note that Purina Chicken Chowder contains the necessary white-forming elements to balance up the yolk-making grain ration. That's why it makes hens lay so heavily. Instead of the yolks being absorbed by the hen's system, Purina Chicken Chowder makes the whites to complete the eggs and they are laid. Thus we can absolutely guarantee more eggs or money back on Purina Chicken Chowder if fed with Purina Hen Chow as directed. You take no risk.

NEW REPUBLIC FORMED

FOLLOWING the North American principle, in a realization of the fact that in union there is strength, three of the tiny republics of Central America have united in a federation. The new republic is composed of Honduras, Salvador and Guatemala.

The plan has proceeded to the point that Dr. Bonilla, a former president of Honduras, who has been in the United States as a commissioner in the recent boundary dispute between Honduras and Guatemala, was summoned last week by the provisional congress which will sign the constitution for the federation.

The text of the constitution gives pleasing evidence of the ever-widening influence of the principles of democracy as set forth in our own great charter. The initial steps of the new republic is its position with reference to radicalism. Dr. Bonilla says no bolsheviki or soviet sympathizers need apply.

There is but little doubt of the fact that the United States will welcome and encourage the new federation. It has been recognized for many decades that the continuance of divisions in South America would delay the development of democratic ideas. On the other hand it has long been realized that the welding together of interests among the smaller nations would eventually come to pass and make for peace and prosperity in South and Central America.

The United States probably need have no fear of this political combination so near to the Panama canal. It is looked upon as being favorable to the development of common interests. It is the stepping toward a condition that was made the greatest feature of our own constitution. This country would indeed be inconsistent to lay anything in the way of such a plan. And since consistency is one of our boasted tendencies, it remains for Uncle Sam to help rather than hinder the new development among the countries to the south of us.

Who knows, the step taken by the three countries named may some time result in a union of all the republics of that continent?

SEEKING WORLD MARKET

SCORE another for the automobile men. They are planning to go after the world trade with determination. They seek first to relieve the pressure on domestic commodity markets, which is certain to come with overproduction and second to afford the world the opportunity to ride in American made automobiles, at reasonable prices. The first proposition is merely a matter of sound business, while the second possesses no small amount of altruism. There is no question but perhaps no other agency has such a great amount of possibility to add to business and human pleasure as the automobile.

It is the greatest device for transportation ever invented by man. It develops countries in a manner not approached by any other agency, or all other agencies combined, for the very reason that it brings about human contact everywhere it is driven. It is handicapped neither by capacity or speed. It possesses mobility and facility of operation that affords advantages no other machine-driven contrivance can boast.

It is but natural that the American automobile manufacturer wants to supply a world which is greatly under-supplied and which probably must continue to be for many years to come. In Korea there is one automobile to every 218,750 persons and in Liberia there is but one to every 250,000. The automobile makers seek to give these people a better chance to be like an American who lives in a country where there is a car for every 11 persons.

It is realized that the extent of the world market is astounding, according to statistics compiled on behalf of the auto manufacturers, for even in the most advanced countries there is a comparative dearth of machines. Great Britain, for instance, has but one machine for every 110 persons, France one for every 205, Germany one for every 735. The percentage increases in a rapidly ascending ratio until the limit is reached, in Korea, one of the oldest of the civilized nations of the earth and Liberia, one of the newest.

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN

ANNOUNCEMENT that certain branches of labor which have been on strike for weeks for a 44-hour week have abandoned their demands and have accepted the 48-hour week, the old basis, indicates a crumbling in the ranks of those seeking to reduce working hours below the accepted standard.

Pressmen, pressfeeders and binders, on strike in conjunction with part of the printing organizations for the shorter week in Cleveland, have accepted the 48-hour basis. This probably means that others will fall into line.

This strike, more or less general, has not been popular either with a large percentage of organized labor or the public. The eight-hour day and 48-hour week have come to be accepted as the standard and efforts to cut these, especially at this time, have not met with hearty approval. The action of the Cleveland unions is encouraging.

GREAT SINGER NOT GONE

ENRICO CARUSO, convalescing at his summer home on the Bay of Naples, has sent back to this country an emphatic denial of rumors that his voice has been impaired by his recent illness. He declares he is feeling stronger and is enjoying his vacation.

This statement should cause rejoicing in America, where the voice of this great singer is known so well and loved. It would indeed be a serious loss should he be compelled to quit his profession.

QUESTION OF MANDATES

AS time passes, it becomes apparent that the position taken by Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby of the President Wilson cabinet and adopted by Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes of the President Harding cabinet, concerning the mandates assigned by the council of the League of Nations, particularly that respecting the Isle of Yap, is making its way to acceptance by the allied governments.

It is stated that France was not altogether unfriendly to our views and that England was also considering them with an open mind. Mr. DaChuna, Brazilian ambassador at Paris, and chairman of the League council, has issued a letter in which he expresses the hope that the allied powers will come to an understanding and agreement with the United States before the next meeting of the council, since the disposition of the mandates must be made by the powers themselves before the League can take action.

HEALTH

Now I reckon that health is the richest possession that ever a mortal can own,
With health in his kingdom, life's burdens are little and he can give battle alone;
He can rise to his day
Let it bring what it may,
With only one thought in his mind,
With never a doubt
That his strength will hold out,
And never a fear left behind.

Give health to a man and the ones he loves best, and he will go fit to the task,
He'll stand to the brunt, and the heat of the strife and little of mercy he'll ask:
The odds may be great
But up-standing and straight
He'll meet them and fight, to the end,
And 'neath gray skies or blue,
He will see the day thru
And take what the fortunes may send.

But let him have riches in silver and gold, and let the world bow to his will,
And barren his days are of pleasure and charm if he or a loved one is ill,
Then heavy of heart
He will play his poor part
And his gold will not cause him to smile,
For of all the world's wealth
The best treasure is health,
And without it there's nothing worth while.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

The morning hours of this day are unlucky.

It is predicted that discontent will spread among employes to such an extent that there may be strikes among clerks and office employes, as well as among day laborers.

There is a prophecy that Lloyd George may suffer loss of power and public favor.

News which threatens the peace of the world may be published at this time.

Men and women who are ambitious may find it hard to realize their desires under this rule of the stars.

Persons whose birthday this is should be extremely careful in writing letters or business documents during the coming year. They will experience unexpected success.

Children born on this day may be headstrong and hard to govern and will meet with their greatest success in speculation or games of chance.

AUTOBOYOGRAPHY

Chapter 16—Aw, Mother!

It is too bad that a boy's earliest years are so largely passed under the personal influence of his mother alone, while he sees comparatively little of his father. This may be all right for mere children, but a boy needs his dad more, to instill into him some manly principles which even the finest of mothers just can't give. Then, too, it would be a fine thing for a boy's father if he had to be about the house more thru the day watching over and caring for his children—maybe he would realize, then, that his job is really a cinch compared with mother's. Father puts in a few hours a day at his job, then lays aside work to go home to change, rest, play or recreation. Mother works every minute, day and night, you might say, with no change, no rest, precious little play or recreation.

But mother makes her work harder than need be, either for her own good or for the good of her children. My dad hopes every kid that reads this will cut out this chapter and put it away for a rainy day. Then when the rainy day arrives, and mother hesitates to let a feller go barefoot for fear he may get his feet wet and take some dangerous cold-cure, let the thrifty boy produce this carefully preserved clipping. My dad is not only a father, but a doctor and a health specialist. He assures all boys, yes, and all children, too, that it is always healthful to go barefoot, rain or shine, hot or cold, if a feller wants to, and enjoys it.

Dad assures all mothers, yes, and all fathers, too, if there are still any fathers so terribly timid as to be unreasonable about it, that it is always healthful for boys or girls to go swimming, hot or cold, rain or shine, once or three times a day if the boys or children want to go in, and enjoy themselves.

So there are two great problems solved in two small paragraphs. Mother need not give herself one moment of anxiety about such matters, so far as the health question may be concerned. Father may spare himself that torture which hurts him so much worse than it hurts his boy—the thrashing he administers to his own boy for doing what he himself did so many, many times when he was a kid about two hundred and fifty years ago, or so it seems. A father who would whip a boy for going in swimming once or any number of times a day, at any time of year, ought to be given some painful treatment to restore his lost memory.

There are a thousand and one little things that are as straws individually yet in the aggregate a heavy load on mother's shoulders if she falls into the habit of constantly and, sooner or later, meaninglessly warning; her children to "Be careful; don't do this; don't do that." Such unconsidered commands are inevitably disregarded and as inevitable unenforced, and the net result is a defiance of all parental discipline as something which has been found insincere.

PROF. STEINBRUGGE SAYS.

The rejuvenation of human beings has been discussed. By the use of a gland and a surgical operation, it is claimed that the middle-aged and old may be made young. The theory has been given some credence by certain members of the medical profession.

It will not be an uncommon sight to see an elderly spinster skipping rope in the park or several distinguished bankers playing marbles on the street. Old members at the club will order two pieces of pie and three plates of ice cream for lunch. The board of governors and patronesses of charitable institutions will indulge in kissing games after the meeting. Can you imagine a bishop crying because he has been refused a second helping of pudding? Grandma running down the street rolling a hoop and Aunt Sophia sitting in a corner holding a doll in her arms?

In the meantime the children will probably be reading Ibsen and Plutarch

STATISTICS.

Ninety per cent of the people want to go to the South Sea Island. The modern books written about them are the cause.

These are the days when a bachelor with a motor car has the feminine world at his command.

Scenarios for the "movies" are so easily written that 40 per cent of the population are doing it. Only 2 per cent of those written ever are flashed on the screen.

The bureau wishes to state that it has found that artists are just as moral as other human beings.

There was a time in our clubs when you could push a bell and ask your friends what they would have. When you signed the check it amounted to eighty cents. After four members had spent about five dollars they felt that they were of the mental caliber to organize a league of nations, take entire command of an army or organizing the entire social system. Those who were poor became rich and those who were miserly became generous. The easiest thing to find was a subject of conversation and the atmosphere was so friendly and warm!

The only bell you hear in a club today is the bell in the steeple of the church not far away. You feel as the some poor chap was being taken to his last resting place.

To become animated during a conversation makes your fellow members suspect that you carry a flask. At all events, it is easier to get up in the morning. Breakfast with bright eyes is the new slogan.

cma tale just a little bit different from the average stuff the producers hand out. "The Walk-Offs" is the feature attraction, in which May Allison is starred.

Besides handing the social parasites a nice little rap or two, the story has a lot of real plot. It was once a stage production, under the direction of Oliver Morosco. Not that it makes any difference, of course, whether it was a stage play or not. Thought you might like to know about it.

The story? Well, a society girl who is long on looks but short on cash, becomes disgusted with her mode of living, and with the divorce of her brother from his once source of money, decides she will marry. Rather, the brother says she will, as he seems to be the family pilot. A young Kentuckian, wealthy, of course, hoves in sight and immediately loves the beautiful Kathleen, altho he doesn't think much of her breed.

The girl hates him; he has aroused her ire and she swears to make him pay. But after a few caveman stunts and numerous thrills, the young Kentuckian wins out and they turn their back on society, to live quietly and peacefully down in Kentucky somewhere. That's the kind of a story it is.

Miss Allison is a delight from start to finish of the picture. There is a warmth and understanding about her that is mightily appealing. And the subtitles, photography, etc. are excellent. Gorgeous gowns, sets, are used lavishly. There directors sure have an eye for effect, now haven't they?

As comedy-dramas go, "The Walk-Offs" stacks up as quite the most interesting and diverting of this class of entertainment you have seen in weeks. And there's that!

BURNS MANTLE TO WRITE SUB-TITLES

WE'D like to say something cool and critical when Burns Mantle bursts into sub-titles. Mantle, as most everyone knows, is associate editor of the Photoplay Magazine, and the Big Dramatic critic of the New York Evening Mail.

Now Mr. B. M. has contracted to write sub-titles for a number of Norma Talmadge's pictures. It'll be a joy to criticize the critic, won't it?

TWO MORE TALENTED KIDDIES IN MOVIES

Oliver Morosco believes that five-year old King Evers will be hailed as one of the big "finds" of the year. Originally cast in a small part in "The Half Breed," the youthful actor has proved so interesting before the camera that he has been offered several important parts in forthcoming productions.

MOVIE SECRETS ARE REVEALED

Q.—What motion picture actress' name was recently dragged into the Stillman divorce case by an imposter?

A.—The Bessie Love recently mentioned in the Stillman divorce case as having tried to intrigue Fred Beauvais, the Indian guide for Stillman, into a compromising position, is not Bessie Love the well known picture actress. The woman decoy in this case posed as Bessie Love, the actress, when as a matter of fact she was in California at that time and has not been out of that state for a year. Of all the motion picture actresses none is more circumspect than Miss Love and never has a breath of scandal touched her. She lives at home with her parents in the Hollywood Apartments, Hollywood, Cal.

Q.—Who is he? He is six feet tall and was born in Baltimore, Md. and is a graduate of the Maryland Agricultural College. In his stage career he appeared in the Charles Frohman Production "Israel" and also with Maxine Elliott in "The Chaperone." He was a co-star in the film serial, "The Hidden Hand" and later appeared with Anita Stewart and Blanche Sweet. He has light brown hair, blue eyes and weighs 185 pounds.

A.—His name is Mahlon Hamilton.

Q.—How old is Theda Bara?

A.—Theda, who has temporarily left the screen and is now in Europe, was born in Cincinnati, O., 31 years ago.

Q.—What motion picture actress made her first big success in the Universal production of "The Trey Of Hearts?"

A.—She is the well know favorite, Cleo Madison, who lives at 1525 N. Bronson, Los Angeles, Cal.

HARDING TO DELIVER MESSAGE IN PERSON

WASHINGTON — White House officers indicated today that President Harding probably would deliver in person his special message to congress regarding bonus legislation. Under this program the senate and house would hold a joint session to receive the message, which probably will be presented within a day or two.

Mr. Harding returned to the White House today from a week-end cruise down the Potomac to Chesapeake Bay and continued work on his message, which he is understood to have started during his trip.

P. F. McCormack Declares Tanlac Is Without An Equal.

Patrick F. McCormack, of 2209 Pearl St., Cincinnati, one of the best known newspaper circulation men in the West, is now an ardent champion of the merits of Tanlac.

In an interview at the Illinois Central railroad station in Chicago, the other day, where he had just arrived from Cincinnati looking fine and expressed himself as feeling the same way, Mr. McCormick made the following statement:

"You tell the people of Chicago for me that I have tried Tanlac and that it's great. What it takes to build a man up and make him feel like something the medicine certainly has it.

"Before I took it my appetite was so poor that meal time meant very little satisfaction to me, for I could hardly force down anything. What I did manage to eat caused severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Gas would form and tighten up my chest so I could hardly breathe and caused my heart to flutter terribly.

"I had sharp pains thru my back and my nerves were so out of fix that I could never get a good night's sleep. Such awful headaches came on me at times that I would nearly keel over and I often got so weak it was a struggle for me to get thru a day's work.

"Well, it didn't take Tanlac long to set me right. Four bottles have made a perfectly well man of me and I feel like praising it to everybody. My appetite is so big that I can hardly get enough to eat and I never feel a trace of indigestion. I get plenty of good sound sleep every night and my weight has increased ten pounds. In fact, I am in prime condition in every way and Tanlac gets a good recommendation from me everywhere I go."

"Tanlac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store.—Adv.

YOUNG MAN IS IN QUANDARY

Is Smitten With Younger Sister of Girl Friend.

Dear Miss Smart:

I AM a young man of 21 and have been going some with a girl a little younger than I. We are very good friends. One evening she invited me into her home for a few minutes and while there I met her younger sister. I have talked with her several times since then and like her so much, I would like to invite her to go with me some place some times, but of course I don't want to do anything to hurt the older girl. What would you suggest?

PUZZLED

INDEED, you are a fickle man. The only thing that really makes your position rather embarrassing is that the girls are sisters. However, do not think it impossible for you to be a friend to both of them. Of course, at first you may find it a little difficult to go with one of the sisters without the other misunderstanding, but I think you will be able to adjust matters in time. You are not engaged and it is your privilege to invite whom you choose, going with several young girls and not devoting your entire time to one.

Perhaps the young girl is more interested than her sister in athletics or some other amusement. In this case it would only seem natural for you to ask her to join you in a game of tennis, golf or some other of the enjoyable sports.

If you do not care to do this, you might invite both of the girls to go some place with you, taking another young man with you so that the party may be an even number.

Dear Miss Smart,

I am a young man of 22 years and am going with a dear girl of 21 years. Our love is great for one another. Would it be proper to talk marriage to her as it would be about a year before I could for I would like to have enough money to go to housekeeping. I do not like to live with our parents.

IN LOVE

Surely, one usually connects love and marriage. If your love is mutual and sincere, do not hesitate in speaking of marriage to the young woman. A year is not a long time in which to be engaged. If you are ambitious and show a desire to make a success, this girl whom you love and admire, will eb only too willing to wait until your circumstances justify marriage and housekeeping.

Dear Miss Smart:

I have a very dark complexion and would like to know what I might do to bleach it.

BRUNNETTE

Lemon juice will remove tan but it cannot transform one from brunette to blond. Certainly your dark complexion should not give cause for worry. An olive complexion, providing it is clear and well kept, is considered a mark of beauty.

NEW YORK — Little alteration from recent reactionary tendencies was manifested by the stock market at the hesitant opening of today's trading. Rails, oils, equipments and specialties of the tobacco and chemical types were lower by fractions to one point. Bethlehem Steel, common and preferred, Canadian Pacific and American Sugar were among the firmer issues.

Foreign exchange continued to weaken notwithstanding the favorable inferences drawn from international developments over the week-end. The British rate opened at $3 63 5-8, a decline of 2 5-8 cents from Saturday.

In the moderate dealings of the morning shorts brought greater pressure to bear against oils, steels, equipments and many of the less prominent industrials and specialties. Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, Harvester, Pullman, United States Rubber, Sumatra Tobacco and Cuba Cane Sugar were lower by 1 to 2 1-2 points.

Sears-Roebuck, Famous Players, Industrial Alcohol and International Paper lost 1 to 3 points. Baldwin, Studebaker, Crucible and Atlantic Gulf featured a moderate rally, most of which was cancelled before noon. Call money opened at 5 1-2 per cent, but foreign exchange became increasingly weak.

New low records were made by various speculative issues in today's dull stock market. Firmer money tendencies and another slump in foreign exchange favored the shorts. Sales approximated four hundred thousand shares.

GENEVA — Irvin Morrison, 22, and George Cheany, 23, were killed near here when a passenger train crashed into their automobile.

BUTTER PRICES STILL FORGING UPWARD; LIVE POULTRY IS ON DECLINE

Wholesale and retail butter prices advanced Monday morning. Wholesale prints were up two cents to 39 cents a pound. Prints in the groceries were up three cents to 47 cents. Country butter was quoted at 45 cents a pound.

Cheese prices are strong in sympathy with the higher prices on butter. Practically all grades of cheese advanced wholesale from two to nine cents on the pound.

Live poultry values declined to a variable degree. Classification of grades has been changed somewhat and prices in most cases are several cents lower. Egg prices are steady.

New sweet corn is now in the market. This is shipped in from the south and while of good quality, is rather high in price, at 85 cents a dozen. Home grown sweet corn and cantaloupes are expected to make thir appearance in from ten days to two weeks. Florida pineapples and cherries are practically off the market.

Butter was the feature of the Cleveland markets. Prints and fancy dairy grades were each up a half a cent. Prints were 44½ and 45 cents each and fancy dairy was 22½ and 31½ cents a pound.

Eggs were also higher. Extra firsts were up a cent to 35 cents while Ohio firsts were up two cents to 32 cents a dozen.

CHICAGO—Hot weather in the northwest sent the wheat market upward today. Some attention was also given to car shortage complaints from the southwest. Besides, country offerings taken as a whole appeared to be only moderate. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1-2c lower to 1 1-4c higher, with September $1.18 to 1.18 3-4 and December $1.20 1-2 to 1.21, were followed by decided gains and then something of reaction.

Absence of rain had a bullish influence on corn. After opening 1-8c off to 1c higher, including September at 59 1-2 to 60, the market scored a material advance all around. Oats hardened with other cereals, starting 1-8 to 3-8c higher, September 38 1-8 to 38 1-8 to 1-4, and then continuing to display strength.

Higher quotations on hogs helped to lift provisions.

The wheat close was steady at the same as Saturday's finish to 1-2c higher with September $1.18 to 1.18 1-4 and December $1.21.

The corn close was firm, 3-8 to 3-4c net higher with September 59 1-2 to 59 1-2 to 5-8.

Grains moved up and down during the Monday session of the Chicago board of trade. Hot weather and damage reports sent prices up for a while but large receipts and good Canadian weather caused wheat to sell off. It was believed that conditions warrant still higher prices on this move.

Stocks opened lower but displayed strength thruout the day. The feeling on the street was that the reaction in stocks had been carried far enough and that an upmove will be seen. Rails are especially favored.

Corn sold for export last week amounted to 2,250,000 bushels. Wheat sold to store Monday was placed at 25,000 bushels.

Ajax rubber company is said to be in operation at near normal and that finances are in a very favorable condition. Prices of all rubber stocks were lower in sympathy with the weakness in United States Rubber. Stockholders of the latter company expect to see the dividend payments on the common stock resumed early next year.

Chicago hogs were 10 to 25 higher. Top was $10.15. Cattle were 25 higher at a top of $8.90 and with bulk steers selling at $7 and $8.50. Pittsburg hogs were higher at $11. Sheep were $5.50 and lambs $12.50.

Detroit unemployment decreased 1 1-2 percent last week. Ford, Dodge and Studebaker are constantly adding first class skilled workers.

Cash wheat premiums have been reduced to between two and five cents.

Disarmament among the world powers would cause the removal of one of the greatest sources of profit of Bethlehem and Republic steel companies. The United States Steel Corp. will not be affected.

Indiana reports that serious damage will be seen in the corn crop if rains are not received soon. Black rust reports from the north-west have been verified. Potatoes are also said to have been damaged.

Winter wheat and rye, the principal food crops of France, are said to have been but little affected by the recent serious drouth.

Kansas City cash wheat prices were from one to three cents lower on heavy receipts. Wheat cars received were 728, cars of corn were 146 and three cars of oats. Chicago wheat prices were down a cent on the cash article.

NO VACATION

Whatever your own chances for a vacation, you may be sure your money will not take a rest if it is in a savings account at the Allen County Savings & Loan Company.

You may feel the need of rest after a year of hard work, but your savings account works day and night and grows stronger year by year.

Five per cent interest is added, one half of this amount July 1st and the other half January 1st.

But the best thing about it is the knowledge that it is safe, and helping to build up your own community.
